

MINOR PROPHETS

MAJOR IMPACT

Haggai

Todd Arnett

November 2nd & 3rd, 2024

1. God's purpose in confronting our sin is to lead us to REPENTANCE.

Haggai 1:1

The book of Haggai is unique from all of the other Minor Prophets whose messages were addressed to Israel or Judah because the people OBEYED what the prophet said!

Haggai 1:7–11, Ezra 3:10–13, Haggai 2:15; 19, Haggai 2:20–23, Ezra 6:14

2. It's important to IDENTIFY what can and cannot be shaken in your life.

Hebrews 12:26–29, Hebrews 12:22–24

– because KING JESUS is already on the throne, this week's election won't change His standing or position.

– if you're a follower of King Jesus, you belong to an UNSHAKEABLE Kingdom.

– everything that is of this world, that is temporary, will be SHAKEN.

3. We have to guard against MISPLACING what matters to God with what seems important to us.

Matthew 6:33

“When we disregard God so that we can please ourselves, we place ourselves in the precarious situation of being outside of God’s intended order and therefore susceptible to a lack of flourishing, but we also place ourselves in the crosshairs of God’s wrath and therefore in danger of God’s judgment. In the case of the Israelites in Haggai’s day, they were desperately in need of obedience.”

– Fries, Rummage, Gallaty (Exalting Jesus in Zephaniah, Haggai, Zechariah, and Malachi)

One of the reasons why God's given us His Spirit to indwell us is to be a source of POWER so that Jesus can live out His life through us.

Ephesians 3:16-17
