1. You know what love is when you understand how God loves you.

Agape: seeking others' well-being while expecting nothing in return.

1 John 4:9-10

2. Once you receive God's love, you come to understand it's meant to give away.

1 John 4:11-12, 1 Corinthians 13:4-7

The invisible God becomes visible when we love each other the way that He's loved us.

John 13:34-35

3. You give away love best when you're "nearby".

Matthew 22:35-40

The Gk word that we translate as “neighbor” and the actual English word itself mean “a near dweller”.

If you don't have an answer for where you presently are engaging the command to “love one another,” then there is a foundational piece missing to your obedience to Jesus.
