

A PLACE at the TABLE

The Meal You Don't Want to Miss
Todd Arnett
April 8th + 9th, 2023

1. Jesus' resurrection was seemingly too fantastic to believe initially.

Luke 24:13-35; 18:31-33

2. If you're seeking Jesus, look for Him in His Book, the Bible.

Luke 24:25-27; Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7

HIGHDESERTCHURCH

HIGHDESERTCHURCH.COM

Old Testament References to a Messiah Who Would Suffer:

- Psalm 22 foretold that Messiah would be forsaken, pierced and vindicated.
- Isaiah 52 & 53 foretold that Messiah would be a suffering servant.
- Psalm 118 foretold that Messiah would be the rejected cornerstone.
- Genesis 22 foretold that Messiah would be a willing sacrifice.
- Psalm 69 foretold that Messiah would be a righteous sufferer.
- Jeremiah 31 foretold that Messiah would be the object of a murderous plot.
- Psalm 16 foretold that Messiah would be resurrected.

Wonder if there's something in there for you today on this Easter weekend?

- Have you put expectations upon Jesus that He never said He would do for you?
- Have you claimed promises from Jesus that He never promised you?
- Have you put Jesus on a timetable to provide for you that He's never agreed to?

3. When you experience the risen Jesus, you can't help but tell others.

Luke 24:28-35; Romans 10:9

It's like how you can't help but share the good news with people when you find your keys or your wallet or your phone that you had been looking for – except in this case, it's you that becomes found!

HIGHDESERTCHURCH

HIGHDESERTCHURCH.COM