Resurrection Weekend

Todd Arnett

March 30th + 31st, 2024

-To experience resurrection, you have to die first.

Hebrews 2:14-15

1. Jesus' resurrection was dangerous enough for His opponents to lie and kill to keep it quiet.

Matthew 28:11-15

Acts 5:30-33

Is Jesus' resurrection dangerous to you today because it would mean that you would have to admit that you've been wrong about Him?

2. Jesus' resurrection is dangerous because it was considered crazy by an unbelieving world then and now.

Acts 17:29–32

You're in good company when you not only believe, but communicate the dangerous truth of Jesus' resurrection to a culture that calls you crazy.

3. Jesus' resurrection is dangerous because it will disrupt the way you live and the hopes that you cling to.

Acts 17:32–34

-The dangerous truth of Jesus' resurrection will change what was true of your life, your habits, your pursuits, your reputation before you embraced it.

Acts 23:6, 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

Because there was no body in the tomb, nobody who trusts in Him will stay in theirs.
